

- Experiments:
 1. Guessing and checking by beginning with the radius and moving on to the inner and outer radii of the annulus to optimize the error
 2. Using for loops to quickly loop through potential values
 3. Changing average modes (mode/median/mean)
 4. Changing fundamental math formulas (background check formula, subtracting formula, etc.)